Summary

Subject matter: Management in the sphere of migration processes on the municipal level (on the example of the FMS of Russia with Stavropol Krai in Pyatigorsk).

Author: Bezverkhnya Yulia Nikolaevna

Supervisor of studies: Astvatsaturova Maia Artashesovna, doctor of political sciences, professor, chair of innovatics, management and law.

Customer organization: FMS of Russia with Stavropol Krai in Pyatigorsk.

Topicality of the research: is conditioned by the need for the effective management of migrational processes in Russia both on the federal and regional levels, by the growth of the social significance of migrational processes in the modern world, their impact on the political, economic, socio-cultural life of the society, and also by the need to solve the existing problems in the sphere of migration on the territory of the RF.

Objective of the research: to reveal the specific features of management in the sphere of migrational flows and work out practical recommendations on the improvement of mechanisms of the management of migrational processes on the municipal level on the example of FMS of Russia with Stavropol Krai in Pyatigorsk.

Tasks: to reveal the content of the notion “management”; to consider migration of the population as the object of management; to analyze the normative-legal basis of the RF over the management of migrational processes; to study the content of the normative – legal basis of management of the migrational flows in Stavropol Krai; to consider the structure and functionality of FMS of Russia with Stavropol Krai in Pyatigorsk; to make proposals on the improvement of the system of management of migrational flows on the municipal level.

Theoretical and practical significance of the research:

Of the work is in the research into the content of migration; in the discovery of the key theoretical problems connected with the management of migrational processes on the municipal level; in the study of the basic normative – legal basis of management of migrational processes; in the substantiation of the key directions of the optimization of management of migrational processes for the sake of the provision of social stability and consistent development of the Russian society. Practical significance of the work is that the principles considered in the process of the research and the general conclusions made can be used in the development and realization of regional, and municipal programs in the sphere of the migrational policy; in the course of the organization and conduct of scientific and practical conferences; in the elaboration and writing of teaching aids.

Result of the research: The conducted analysis on the study of management in the sphere of migrational processes on the municipal level on the example of FMC of Russia with Stavropol Krai in Pyatigorsk showed that migration management is a complex management task asking for constant improvement and accurate interaction of all the subjects of management.

Recommendations:
Development on the federal level of programs of effective recruiting of staff, improvement of the system of training, re-training of staff and improvement of the qualification of state employees in the given sphere; operative updating of the information on the stands of FMC of Russia with Stavropol Krai in Pyatigorsk as soon as any changes in the legislation of the RF in the sphere of migration arise; the increase in the issue of memoranda for the staff and local population with a view to improving their legal literacy; the provision of their circulation through the active interaction with the leaders of the diaspora, public and religious organizations in Pyatigorsk; and also the placement of the information on the stands and memoranda on the “Portal of public and municipal services”; intensification of interaction with the mass media in order to build favourable public opinion as regards migrants and circulation of information on the role of the migrational flow for the improvement of the socio-economic situation in Pyatigorsk and KMV region; intensification of collaboration with the bodies of local government, particularly with Pyatigorsk Administration; conclusion of the agreement on the interaction between FMC of Russia with Stavropol Krai in Pyatigorsk and the Interregional public charity organization “Vera, Nadezhda, Lubov” for the purpose of the conduct of joint measures as regards migrants; intensification of the interaction with the apparatus of the Ombudsman in Stavropol Krai by using video conferencing and video meetings; intensification of the impact on the student body implementing student migration; realization of the interaction with centers of PSLU on the study of various cultures with the purpose of the creation of a favourable opinion among the local population of foreign citizens, and also the inhabitants of the Northern Caucasus Republic.