

Theme of graduate qualification work: Lexical-semantic and discursive realization of the mental representation of the "enemy" in the French party and parliamentary discourse.

Author of the graduate qualification work: Keleshyan Irina Arutovna

Scientific supervisor (of the graduate qualification work): Doctor of Philology, professor of French Philology and cross-cultural communication E.Y.Kustova

Data about the organization - client: Russian Foundation for Humanities (project 14-04-00029 «Cultural and linguopragmatic aspects of parliamentary communication in EU countries (UK, Germany, France. The European Parliament»))

Information about customer organization: Department of the French philology and intercultural communications

Timeliness of the research: Timeliness of the research is based on growing expansion of study of the "enemy" concept in the French political discourse

Objective of the research: The objective of this research is to consider and elicit the "enemy" concept in the French party and parliamentary discourse evidence from French National assembly texts.

Research task: in order to succeed the following tasks are needed:

1. Consider items 'concept' and 'political discourse'
2. Point out main features and characteristics of the 'concept'
3. Find out "enemy" concept in the speech of the French parliamentarians.

Theoretical and practical relevance of the research

Theoretical relevance of the research is to consider different theories of concept classification, its structure and role in the political discourse

Practical relevance of the research is to find out nominal scope of the 'enemy' concept, its structure and content in the political discourse in France.

Research data can be of practical use in linguistics and politics.

The results of the research: In this research the modern picture of the concept of "Enemy" was shown in the speech of modern French parliamentarians.

Recommendations: the results of the study can be used in the practice of the French language, the study of the theory of intercultural communication, linguistics. They can also be used in the development of various teaching methods, courses of French grammar, interpretation and analysis of texts of different genres, the study of stylistics and rhetoric.

The work took approbation at the Young Science conference in 2015 and 2016. The results of the researches were reflected in two publications:

1. Keleshyan I. A. Lexical-semantic and discursive realization of the mental representation of the "enemy" in the French party and parliamentary discourse. (SC). P.1//Young Science.Pyatigorsk: PGLU. 2015.

2. Keleshyan I. A. Lexical-semantic and discursive realization of the mental representation of the "enemy" in the French party and parliamentary discourse. Sarcasm. P.2//Young Science.Pyatigorsk: PGLU. 2016.