

RESUME

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE FRENCH AND RUSSIAN POLITICAL DISCOURSE

(on the basis of the public speech of F. Hollande and V.V. Putin)

Graduation qualifying Thesis from:

Pyatigorsk State University

Institute of International Service, Tourism and Foreign Languages

Faculty of the English and Romance Languages

Chair of Theoretical Linguistics and Practice of Intercultural Communication

Author: Raspopova Anzhela Alexandrovna

Main parts: Contents, Introduction, two Chapters, Conclusion, Bibliography, List of Internet resources.

Keywords: text, political discourse, functions, genres, strategies and tactics, cultural values, stylistic devices, public speech and inaugural speech.

Abstract: The aim of the present thesis is to analyze and describe the linguostylistic and extralinguistic features of the French and Russian political discourse on the basis of the public speech of F. Hollande and V.V. Putin.

In Chapter I the theoretical basics of political discourse are revealed: the essence of the notion «political discourse», its functions and genres, strategies and tactics and the frequency of appealing to the cultural features.

Chapter II is devoted to the comparative study of the French and Russian political discourse and revealing differences and similarities between them.