Summary

Subject matter: Management of the development of small business at the municipal level.

Author: Tlupova Dina Zaurbekovna.

Supervisor of studies: X.-M.Yu. Eldarkhanov, doctor of economics, professor, academician, chair of creative and innovative management and law.

Customer organization: Nalchik administration.

Topicality of the research: The changes of the inside and outside conditions of the economic activity worldwide now under way in the last decades have repeatedly increased the load on the entire system of production management and product sales. Today at all the levels of management there is need for autonomous, self-guided groups of employees from different departments of the company capable of breaking into markets. Russia has to study the new trends in the western economy to accelerate the development of small and medium-sized business while certainly taking into account the specific features of our economy.

Objective of the research: is the development of the methodological principles and practical recommendations on the improvement of management of small business.

Tasks:

- To reveal the essence of small business, its role in the state economy;
- To study the experience of the development of small business in the RF and factors hindering it;
- To determine the place and role of the organs of public and municipal administration in the development of small business, particularly in KBR, RF;
- To consider on the example of Nalchik the practice of realization of the programs on the development of small business at the level of local government.

Theoretical and practical significance of the research: is expressed in the possibility of the application of the analytical conclusions of the research in the work of the organs of public and municipal power of the RF, interested in the increase in the efficiency of the realization of the programs of the support and development of small business in the region.
Results of the research: a complex realization of the direction of the program enables one right now to create the favorable political and socio-economic conditions for the dynamic development of small business and secure the unemployed the jobs in the sphere of small business of the republic and its regions.

Recommendations:

-it is essential: to support republican and in a considerable degree regional, local organs of power (Nalchik, in particular) in their development of farm economies on the available lands;

-to provide services for the recreation-tourist complex;

-to attach more attention to the creation of small business to provide services for the local population-making clothes, shoes, furniture and development of repair’s shops.