Summary

Subject matter: Improving the mechanisms of realization of the state youth policy at the municipal level.

Author: R.T. Khapaev.

Supervisor of student: Lecturer A.V. Gorkusha.

Customer organization: Administration Cherek district CBD.

Topicality of the research: The future of Russia as a whole and the region in particular, is in the hands of the younger generation. It was at this age for a man is important the state support and stimulation of personal abilities, employment and professional potentials. Development and strengthening of an effective youth policy - the goal of any modern state, which thinks about the future.

Objective: to suggest ways of improving the implementation of youth policy.

Tasks:
- A definition of youth as a particular social group, to study the concept;
- To study the concept and model of youth policy;
- To analyze the youth policy in Russia at the present stage;
- To analyze the practice of the implementation at the municipal level youth policy (for example, Cherek municipal district)
- To determine the direction of development of youth policy (for example, Cherek municipal district);
- To develop recommendations the organization of youth policy process (for example, Cherek municipal district).

Theoretical and practical significance of the research: ies in the synthesis of this problem, the formulation of the conclusions that can be used later for a more thorough study of the problems of realization of youth policy.

The practical significance of the study is reflected in the development of specific recommendations for improving the implementation of youth policies at the municipal level.
Results of the research:

- Mismatch of program objectives and specific actions, which ultimately leads to the simulation activities;
- Inconsistency of the developed programs and projects, technological support;
- A mismatch between the program and the level of everyday social practices.

Recommendations:

1. Youth for Russia (the development of youth exchanges between the regions, support youth initiatives and youth democracy projects).
2. Voluntary Service (the development of voluntary activities of young people, their inclusion in the processes of integration, the development of citizenship through participation in unpaid voluntary projects).
3. Youth support system (training courses and seminars for staff of youth workers, social workers and teachers, internships).
4. Support for cooperation in the youth field (development of the all-Russian youth policy through a system of seminars for managers and workers of the youth sphere, officials, politicians and public figures).

We also proposed the creation of Cherek in the municipal district of the so-called Youth House, where young people will be offered the most diverse range of constructive activities and practices.