

Summary

Subject matter: particularities of the French legal discourse.

Author: Minkina Taisiya

Supervisor of studies: Helen Y. Kustova, doctor of philology

Information about customer organization: Chair of French philology and the intercultural communication.

Topicality of the research: is determined by objective factors, one of which is the necessity for further development of the legal discourse problems and formation of legal linguistics as a science.

Objectives of the research: is the legal discourse in its various forms as an example of regulatory legal acts of family law.

Tasks of the research:

- To consider the definition of the concept of discourse;
- To characterize discourse-analysis at the present stage;
- To examine the problem of the legal discourse studies;
- To analyze the relevance of the legal discourse understanding;
- To study the main features of the legal discourse in written form.

Theoretical and practical significance: is determined by its contribution to the development of the legal language functioning.

Results of the research: the materials of this study can be used in the practice of law, as well as in different spheres of international law.